

Genealogical information published in the Wochentlicher Pennsylvanischer Staatsbote by Heinrich Miller in 1768 of German Settlers in Philadelphia/Germantown and the surrounding area.

Transcribed by AwesomeGenealogy.com February 2003

<http://www.awesomegenealogy.com>

Source: Genealogical Data Relating to the German Settlers of Pennsylvania and Adjacent Territory page 100

By Hocker 1980

March 29th

Anna Maria Beisserin, living with her son-in-law, Philip Alberti, Arch street, Philadelphia, where Johannes Beisser lived, is going abroad. Alberti makes tinware.

Josephum Antonium Santerini left Mannheim, Germany, 27 years ago for Philadelphia.

Johann Jacob Wetzel, Great Swamp (Bucks County).

Urban Eschenbrenner, on the Ridge (Ridge avenue), near Philadelphia.

Peter Hasenclever, New York, advertises that his indentured German lackey, Alexander Burckhard, ran away. He speaks German and French.

Andreas Fischer, on William Bell's place, near Frankford, Philadelphia County.

Transcribed by AwesomeGenealogy.com February 2003

<http://www.awesomegenealogy.com>

Source: Genealogical Data Relating to the German Settlers of Pennsylvania and Adjacent Territory page 100

By Hocker 1980